ANOTHER FIGHT WITH A BUNCH OF MEXICAN BANDITS

Caught Napping By 200 Americans and 30 are Killed.

VILLA WAS NOT WITH THE BAND
No Mention Made of American Casualties—Rout was Complete.

San Geronimo, Chihuahua, April 4.—(Via aeroplane to Colonia Dublan, and by wireless to Columbus, N. M.)—Two hundred American cavalrymen, under Col. W. C. Brown, Tenth cavalry, defeated an equal force of Villa followers in the second engagement of the campaign at Aguascalientes, thirty miles north of Guerrero, on April 1.

This report was brought to Gen. Pershing today by two Mexican ranchmen, who said that the Mexican forces lost thirty men and forty horses, while the Americans suffered no casualties.

Villa was not with the band, according to the ranchmen, who asserted that the American troops believed at first they had encountered the bandit chieftain.

Only the most meager details of the ensuing engagement were brought by the ranchmen, but in many respects it resembled that of a week ago at Guerrero. Immediately the bandits realized the presence of the American troops, they began a hurried disorganized flight from their camp, some seizing their ponies and others trying to make their escape afoot. The ranchmen told Gen. Pershing that the Villa followers fled in scattered bands of three to five men before the negro cavalrymen.

Reports reaching here indicated that the band encountered by the American cavalrymen was the largest detachment of the force defeated and scattered at Guerrero a week ago today by Col. Dodd's command. These troops were said to have been in the vicinity of Bachiniba Pass for several days.

Two American scouts reported to Gen. Pershing they had been fired on by Villa outposts last Friday within the environs of Bachiniba, and that they had returned the fire. Two troops of cavalry, sent to the town to intercept the bandits, reached there after the command had fled.

According to versions of the Mexicans who arrived at Maj. Evans' headquarters, Col. Brown surprised wandering bandits while they were lying about the village, many asleep, and all of their horses grazing, when the cavalry rushed upon them. Other than the number reported killed and the fact that the American forces captured a number of horses, Maj. Evans' informants were without details of the encounter.

TWO NEGROES ARE SHOT

Neither Seriously Wounded and Both Able to be Out Next Day.

Pleas Thomas, col., is in jail charged with shooting and wounding two other negroes, Freedman Spencer and James Robinson. The trouble occurred on North Virginia street Monday night. Robinson was shot in the back, the ball entering at the point of the left shoulder blade. Spencer was struck in the side, the ball passing through. Neither wound is considered serious and both men were able to appear before the grand jury Tuesday. Robinson claims that Thomas asked him for a cigarette and when he told him he had none, the latter called him a vile name and he slapped him. He says that Thomas then pulled his gun and fired twice. He claims that both shots were fired at him and that Spencer was shot accidentally.

ASHLEY NOT INDICTED

Grand Jury Reports There Was No Evidence to Indict Young Merchant

The grand jury, after an adjourned session of two days, finally adjourned Tuesday evening, after returning 18 more indictments, making a total of 173.

One of these indictments was of importance, but the parties are not yet before the court.

Several more negroes were indicted for crimes committed since the other reports were made. Pig Green, who shot at Charley Thomas, another negro, on Main street Monday afternoon, was not indicted and Green was released from jail. His claim was that Thomas had been following him all day in a threatening manner.

L. R. Ashley, whose shoe store was burned early in January, and who was arrested and put under bond shortly afterwards, was not indicted. The grand jury reported that no evidence justifying such action was found. The bond will be released tomorrow when court reconvenes. Mr. Ashley is still here, has settled the insurance loss and closed out the remnant of his stock. His future plans have not been announced, but he may remain here and resume business. He has made many friends who stood by him in his trouble and rejoice with him in his release from custody and in his vindication.

Tobacco Market Still Higher This Week, On All Grades, Than Usual

TRIGG TOPS THE MARKET

B. I. Thomas, of Caledonia, Averages $10.50 On 8,000 Pounds

The tobacco market is higher this week than for years and the trash grades are higher than ever known. The market may be classed as wild and prices on low grades have jumped to a profit of as high as $3.50 a hundred for some of the buyers who have since sold on the loose floors. Something has happened and yet explained. One rumor is that Austria-Hungary's 180,000,000 pound crop has been cut out for 1916 and only food stuffs will be grown. Another is that Italy is reselling to Germany, with whom she is not at war. Whatever it is, the market has become positively excited, but unfortunately too late to benefit many of the farmers, as 75 per cent of the crop has been sold.

On the loose floor of R. E. & W. D. Cooper yesterday a Trigg county crop top, of 8,000 pounds, was sold at an average of $10.50 on 8,000 pounds. The lucky seller was B. I. Thomas, of Caledonia, and he got $3 for trash, $7.50 and $8.50 for lugs and $10.50 to $11.75 for leaf.

S. A. POWELL NEW MEMBER

Of Road Commissioner Vice O. E. Layne, Resigned.

The Road Commission met Tuesday and got down to business by electing a resident engineer at a salary of $150 a month to have charge of the active work of construction. Mr. John A. Whittaker, the government expert, officiates in a supervisory capacity, but there is a great deal of surveying and planning to be done in connection with standardizing the 216 miles of pike and in building 50 miles or more of new roads. There are 1200 miles of roads in the county and the contests for the new lines will be spirited. Mr. Folsom has already entered upon his duties.

O. E. Layne, the Pembroke member of the Commission, who will shortly remove to Clarksville, tendered his resignation and S. A. Powell, a well known Pembroke merchant, was elected to the place. The Fiscal Court promptly confirmed Mr. Powell's election.

JOHNSON-MULLINS Son of Former Sheriff Weds The Jailer's Daughter.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to Low Johnson, Jr., and Miss Hazel Mullins. The register stated that the marriage would take place on the 5th, but the young couple guarded their plans so well that the hour was not known yesterday afternoon. The groom is a son of former Sheriff Low Johnson, and is engaged in farming. The bride is a pretty daughter of Jailer A. E. Mullins. They will reside with Mr. and Mrs. Low Johnson, Sr.

Most Enjoyable Occasion

A family reunion was held Sunday at the home of Mr. J. C. Johnson, a few miles Northeast of the city. The occasion was in honor of Mrs. D. E. Myers, of Idaho, a sister of Mrs. Johnson, who has been visiting in the county for some time. The affair proved a most enjoyable one to the large number present.

GERMANS ARE DRIVEN BACK

French Holding Their Own On The Western Front.

RUSSIAN FRONT ACTIVE

Austrians Have Occupied a Town Held By The Italians.

London, April 5.—An attempt by the Germans to press farther south against the French in the region of Douaumont, northeast of Verdun, has met with repulse and considerable losses. In the same sector, north of the Caillette wood, the French have continued their progress in driving back the Germans.

The German attack south of Douaumont was launched against the French first lines of defense, but the French raked the advancing Germans with their curtain of fire, machine guns and infantry fire, forcing them to retreat in disorder northwest toward the Chaffour wood.

An attack by the Germans on the town of Haucourt, northwest of Verdun, also failed, as likewise did an attempt to reach the French trenches near Seppois, in Vosges mountains. Elsewhere along the Western front there have only been reciprocal bombardments and some mining activity on the line held by the British.

On the Russian front, artillery activity of the Russian in the lake region southeast of Dvinsk has increased but in general no important changes in the positions of the Russians and Germans have taken place.

The Austrians have occupied the border ridge near Lobbia Alta and Monte Fumo, which was held by the Italians. Artillery duels are still in progress on the Doberdo sector and the Col di Lana and in the Giudicarian Alps.

GUTHRIE TO BE TAKEN ON

The Lighting System With Its Central Plant Here.

Hopkinsville is to become a still greater lighting center for a number of towns throughout this region.

Already current from the big new plant of the Kentucky Public Service Co. here is lighting Clarksville, Tenn., and Pembroke and Trenton. A line is now being built from Trenton on to Guthrie, which is expected to be completed within a month and when this is done the current will be furnished from here. On top of this comes the announcement by S. G. Ragsdale, of Pembroke, general manager for the South Kentucky Power Company, which owns the line from here to Pembroke, Trenton and Guthrie, that his company has secured franchises for lighting systems at Elkton, Adairville, Auburn, Louisville and Franklin, in Kentucky, and Adams, Cedar Hill and Portland, in Tennessee. Also that a deal is now pending for the purchase of the municipal lighting plant at Russellville, and if this is secured that it will be added to the string. The plant at Elkton is reported to have been bought by the South Kentucky Power Company.

QUIT ART FOR INSURANCE

Willie De Treville, a Hopkinsville boy, who was in New York studying art, fell in with Fred Wallis, who gave him a try-out in writing life insurance three months ago. He took to the business like a duck to water and made a success from the start. He wrote new business with such success that he captured the company's medal for February and March and was honored with a special seat at the recent Delmonico banquet. He has an insurance job as long as he wants it.

We are already bothered by Insurance inspectors, Fire marshal inspectors, Female labor inspectors, Child labor inspectors, Pure food inspectors, Hotel towel inspectors, Individual cup inspectors, Bank inspectors, Post office inspectors, And so forth and so on. And soon we are to have compensation inspectors, pay-day inspectors and several other new ones, thanks to the asininity of the the last Legislature.

Bowling Green is the first Kentucky town to ask for government guns to establish a military feature in the public schools. This is being done with great success in the schools of Wyoming, taking the place of all forms of athletics. It is the sensible and proper way to carry out the "preparedness" idea.

With Richard C. P. Thomas, of Bowling Green, First District; S. W. Hager, of Owensboro, Second District, and Robert T. Caldwell, of Lexington, Third District, announced as members of the Workmen's Compensation Board, to administer the workmen's compensation law for industrial injuries, the board will organize without delay, elect a secretary and begin getting ready for business when the law becomes operative August 1. A vast amount of preliminary work is to be done, and before many weeks, possibly days, a test suit will be brought to determine the constitutionality of the act. This may be brought about by the simple expedient of demanding to be assigned offices in the Capitol, provided under a section of the act.

WAYS OF SIR EDWARD GREY

British Statesman Declared to Be "Insular in His Tastes" and Devoted to Fishing.

Sir Edward Grey has traveled little; it is jocularly said that he made his first visit to Paris when he accompanied the king there a short time ago. Alfred G. Gardner writes in the Atlantic. He is not a linguist; he is wholly insular in his tastes, almost unknown in society, much more devoted to fishing than to politics; speaks little, and then in the plainest and most unadorned fashion; is indifferent to the currents of modern life, and turns for his literature to the quietism of Wordsworth, Walton and White's "Selborne," is rarely seen in the house, and then seems to stray in, as it were, like a visitor from another planet. And in spite of all this he exercises an almost hypnotic influence on parliament. The detachment of his mind, the Olympian aloofness and serenity of his manner, the transparent honesty of his aims, his entire freedom from artifice and from appeals to the "gallery," all combine to give him a certain isolation and authority that are unique. His speech has the quality of finality. Mr. Asquith wins by sheer mental superiority; Lloyd-George wins by the swiftness and suppleness of his evolutions; Sir Edward Grey wins by his mere presence, and the sense of high purpose and firmness of mind which that presence conveys. It is a favorite jest of his enemies that no man can be quite so wise as Sir Edward Grey looks.

RIGHT PACKAGE FOR BUTTER

Pound Prints Most Suitable for Home Dairy—Old Way of Mold Is Quite Unsanitary.

The style of package in which butter is offered for sale depends largely on the market, the amount of butter manufactured and the frequency with which it is sold. The old way of molding farm butter in cakes, hails and rolls is unsanitary and out of date, and a newer form of package is now used in its stead. The style of package has much to do with the sale and price of butter and on this account it is given much attention.

When butter is made on a small scale on the farm, earthen crocks are often used and give good satisfaction. They are often objected to on account of the weight and the ease with which they are broken during transportation. When viewed from the standpoint of the keeping quality of butter there is possibly no container that equals the earthen crock. In view of this fact it is the best to use when the butter is made for home use.

Wooden tubs and boxes are used for packing butter. The tubs are of different sizes, 10-pound, 20-pound, 30-pound and 60-pound; the boxes are usually all of the latter size. These, however, are only suitable for the larger dairies. When used they should be lined with parchment paper after both have been thoroughly soaked and steamed. Parchment paper cut to fit the package is commonly furnished with the tub or box.

For the home dairy one-pound prints or bricks of butter are coming more and more into favor. Each print or brick of butter should be neatly wrapped in parchment paper. The parchment paper may be plain, but more often, the butter maker has some distinctive design on it. This latter is the best form in which to put up butter if supplying to a special trade. It is only advisable, however, to put up butter of the best quality in pound prints.

pressing a lever connected to each axle, the four wheels or four runners may be raised or lowered together, or in pairs, as desired. That is, the front part of the wagon may be made to rest upon runners, while the rear section remains upon wheels, or vice versa, or all four wheels or the complete set of runners may be used.—Popular Mechanics.

CONCRETE FOR FENCE POSTS

Farmers Are Finding It Profitable Substitute for Timber, Which Decays Quite Rapidly.

Where cement is easily obtained and proper aggregates are available, farmers are finding it profitable to substitute concrete posts for posts of wood. Wooden posts are temporary at best, and in some localities decay within a very few years.

Concrete posts are indestructible, keep in better alignment than wooden posts, and, under normal conditions, cost little more if as much as the latter. In some sections of the country they can be made cheaper than a good wooden post. Their fireproof and everlasting qualities make them especially desirable. A simple type of post can be easily made on the farm. A farmer may make his own molds, or he can purchase them from one of the various concerns that manufacture molds on a large scale.

Farmers sometimes club together in purchasing factory or metal molds, thus reducing expense to the individual. This is a very good plan as metal molds do not warp or decay.

KEEP THE INCUBATORS BUSY

Hatching Boxes Furnish Ideal Conditions for Testing Germinating Quality of Seeds.

Money locked up in incubators loafs on the job too much of the year. Why not put out hatching boxes to work testing seeds? Incubators furnish almost the ideal conditions for testing the germinating quality of all garden and farm seed.

In winter and early spring it is no easy matter to hold the temperature and moisture of the seed-testing trays just as we want them. The incubator does the trick and stays with the job.

BREED FOR THE FARM FLOCK

Farmer Must Suit Himself and Market Conditions in Selecting Variety—Discard the Scrub.

As with most of our domestic animals, there is absolutely no best breed of hens; if there was there would soon be only that one breed left, while now one hardly dares say how many good breeds there are without first consulting the very latest issue of the Standard of Perfection.

Then suit yourself and your market conditions in selecting your breed, but select some one breed and "stick to it" until you have the best flock of that breed in the county or state. The color of the shell of the egg has much to do with the market demand for it. San Francisco demands a clear white egg, while others want a rich brown color; and the high-grade chicks, all the way across, mean, in a way, take about any color, but most city retailers find it to their advantage to separate the colors to suit individual customers.

But never, no matter how long you have time with "scrub" or mongrel stock on the farm, and don't try to keep too many breeds or you may soon have a lot of mongrels yourself. Even on the regular poultry ranch where many breeds are kept, strange "mixtures" sometimes happen in some most unexplainable way.

It is often claimed that mixed breeds or "scrubs" lay better than purebreds, but a careful investigation will generally prove that the feed, care, and perhaps the age of the birds, has more to do with the egg product than the simple fact that they are cross-bred.

But while different markets demand different colored eggs there is no market on this continent, at least, that demands a dirty or stained egg, or an egg that has been under a broody hen for a night or two, or one that has been out in the sun for several days. Gather daily at least and ship at least weekly.

DAIRYMEN VERSUS THE DAIRY

Man Is Chief Factor in Production of Clean Milk, According to Medical Experimenters.

A number of American medical experts and experimenters in hygiene made a study to determine the most important factor in the production of clean milk—the dairy or the dairyman—and have come to the conclusion that the dairyman is the chief factor and the dairy of secondary importance.

The clean dairyman may be transported from dairy to dairy and can make clean milk wherever he goes. It is said that if all the unclean dairies or matters of secondary importance are eliminated, the factors which even alone are sufficient to produce under the conditions found in ordinary dairies a milk so clean that it will have with great regularity a bacterial count less than 10,000 bacteria per cubic centimeter are as follows:

Milking with dry hands into covered milking pails, the proper washing and sterilization of milking pails and milk cans, cooling the milk by placing the cans in tanks of cold water or ice water, regular laboratory testing of the milk for bacteria, and payments based on the laboratory tests.

ASHES GOOD AS FERTILIZER

They Not Only Contain Potash and Phosphoric Acid, but Also Magnesia and Lime.

The farmer who burns wood for heating and cooking should carefully store the ashes and not permit them to leach, as they have a peculiar fertilizing value. They not only contain potash and phosphoric acid in appreciable amounts, but also contain magnesia and lime, and when applied to the land they also act indirectly to increase the available nitrogen content of organic matter in the soil.

Ordinary house ashes contain on the average about eight or nine per cent of potash and two per cent of phosphoric acid. Investigators have considered that there is enough potash and phosphoric acid in a bushel of ashes to make it worth 20 or 25 cents. Besides that, some 10 or 15 cents additional might be allowed for the "alkali power" of the ashes. This power is that which enables ashes to rot weeds and to ferment peat. The potash content of ashes will be lost if they are permitted to leach, and care should be taken to store them in a dry place.

Dormant Spraying

The "dormant spraying" which destroys the bark scale and the eggs of injurious insects, is the most important spraying of the year, in the judgment of some orchardists.

TELL SHEEP'S AGE BY TEETH

When Purchasing an Animal One Should See to It That None of Molars Are Missing.

A lamb has eight small first-teeth on the lower jaw. When the animal reaches the age of about one year, the middle pair are replaced by two permanent teeth, at the age of about two the teeth on either side of these permanent teeth are also replaced with a permanent pair; at the age of three the next tooth on either side gives way to a permanent tooth; and at about the age of four, the last or back teeth are replaced in like manner.

Briefly, then, a sheep with one pair of permanent teeth is a yearling; sheep with two pairs is a two-year old; with three pairs, a three-year old; and with four pairs, a four-year old.

After a sheep is four years old, one cannot tell by the teeth about the age. However, one who is purchasing a sheep should see to it that it has not lost any teeth, or that the teeth have not become long and shoo-peggy in appearance.

Have Some Sheep.

A nice herd of sheep will fit in almost any farm equation. Look up the pros and cons of the question very carefully and we believe that you will include them in your next year's schedule. If you have not the cash or inclination to start with an entire purebred flock, buy the best ewes you can and grade up with a purebred ram.

Important Stock Function.

It is an important function of live stock on the farm to furnish a market for the crops grown, enabling farmers to convert the surplus fence crops, legumes and so on into higher-priced finished products and to return to the soil the plant food taken from it.

EXPRESS CO'S. MAKE CHANGE

No Change to Be Made in Management, Says Barrett.

New York, April 5.—William M. Barrett, president of the Adams Express Co., announced here that the controlling interest in the Southern Express Co., had been acquired by his company.

Mr. Barrett said, however, that there would be no change in the management of the Southern Express Co., that Morton F. Plant will remain as chairman of the board of directors, T. W. Leary as president and E. M. Williams as vice-president.

Mr. Barrett, in announcing the transfer in control of the Southern Express Co., said that the Adams Express Co. had been the second largest owner of the Southern Express Co. for more than fifty years.

FATHER MOURNS

His Son Was the First Victim of Campaign in Mexico

El Paso, Texas., Apr. 4.—Bitterly condemning the Wilson administration for being a party to the death of his son because of neglect, Joseph W. Allison of Dallas, Texas, wired to Senator Charles A. Culberson protesting against the failure of the United States government to use the Northwestern Railroad and stating that had the government done so the life of his son, Lieut. Joseph W. Allison, Jr., would have been saved.

Lieut. Allison died March 27 of pneumonia at the hospital at Fort Bliss, after contracting the disease at the front. The manner in which he was transported to the hospital base was said to have been instrumental in the lieutenant's death. The elder Allison's protest as sent to Senator Culberson reads as follows:

"Your West Point appointee, my son, Lieut. Joseph W. Allison, died here of pneumonia, contracted at the front, from which he was brought, traveling four days in an army wagon over rough roads under intense suffering—a victim of his country's criminal and heartless negligence in failing to avail itself of the rail transportation already at hand and to be had for the asking."

NO PAROLE FOR YOUTSEY

Only Man Serving Time For The Murder Of Gov. William Goebel

Frankfort, Ky., April 5.—Henry Youtsey, convicted sixteen years ago of complicity in the assassination of Gov. William Goebel and sentenced to life imprisonment, yesterday was refused a parole by the state board of prison commissioners by a vote of 2 to 1.

Youtsey is the only person among the six accused of complicity in the assassination who is serving a prison term. The others either were acquitted or granted executive clemency.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than in all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

After His Preacher.

Editor Gregory, of the Central City Argus, last week editorially announced his "resignation as secretary of the Board of Deacons, member of the building committee, worker in the church and former teacher in the Sunday School." From the tone of his article it appears that he feels that he has not been treated fairly by the Rev. Ernest House, pastor of the Christian church, at that place. He adds, "The Argus will handle him without gloves," and the article closes with "Subscribe for The Argus and keep up with this new serial which starts next week."—Russellville Times.

JUDGE HENDERSON

The New Judge Has Made An Excellent Impression.

Judge Carl Henderson, of Marion, who held court here the first of the week and will return to-morrow to finish up the business of the term, is a new man on the bench. He is a Republican who defeated Lee Gibson, of Madisonville, in the landslide of last year. During the night rider troubles of ten years ago, Judge Henderson was a captain of the State Guards and did effective service in restoring law and order. His appearance here Monday was his first assignment outside of his own district. He came as a stranger to nearly all of the members of the bar, but soon got over a little embarrassment due to lack of experience and unfamiliar surroundings. He is tall and erect, with a beardless face, large searching blue eyes, iron-gray hair, a military bearing and the look of a scholar. He has made a fine impression here and off the bench is an especially pleasant and agreeable gentleman.

BASS-NEBLETT

Surprise Wedding Of A Popular Young Couple Here Yesterday

Mr. Oscar L. Bass, Jr., and Miss Brenda Neblett stole a march on their friends yesterday morning at nine o'clock by a surprise wedding. It had leaked out that their marriage would take place this month and when the license was issued yesterday morning the impression was gained that the wedding would take place last night. Instead, however, it was solemnized at once and the bride and groom were whisked to the L. & N. depot and were well on their way to South Carolina for a wedding trip before any but a very few of their close friends knew of the wedding. They will return in a few days and take board with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Forbes, the groom being a brother of Mrs. Forbes.

The groom is a member of the jewelry firm of Blakey, Bass & Barnett and is connected with the chemical department of the Forbes company. He is a fine young business man. His bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Neblett and is one of Hopkinsville's most charming girls, widely popular here and in Clarksville, from which city the family came here a few years ago.

The wedding took place at the Neblett home on Alameda avenue, Dr. Lewis Powell, officiating.

Jaws Locked.

Ashland, Ky., April 5.—William Blanton, 25, has gone to Louisville, where he will undergo an operation. Blanton's jaws are grown together so closely that he is unable to eat any solid food other than that which he can force through his teeth. A local dentist, Dr. George Bell, extracted his eleven teeth and raised enough money to pay his way to Louisville, where he will be operated on.

MR. CHAPIN TO RETURN

Poultry Expert Will Speak
Here on Next Monday Night.

The Christian County Poultry Improvement Association held its regular monthly meeting at the H. B. M. A. Monday night and much interesting matter was discussed.

Mrs. Graves' report of the Boys and Girls club work was read. The report shows an enrollment of 93 boys and girls in twelve clubs.

Eighteen hundred White Wyandotte eggs have been distributed to date and several hundred more are booked for later distribution.

The children are taking great interest in the work and are being helped by their parents, who are showing material interest by the building of new poultry houses or yards. In some cases the parents have ordered eggs and are working with the children. The Government bulletins are being studied and the composition work has started. These compositions are based on the Government's correspondence course, which is furnished through Mrs. Graves.

Mr. Arthur Chapin, who spent a week in the county a month ago, is to return next week for a week's stay, during which time he will visit all of the clubs and give such instruction as is needed at this time.

Mr. Chapin will deliver several illustrated lectures during the week, the first at the H. B. M. A. on Monday night, the 11th. On Thursday night Mr. Chapin will deliver a lecture at the Pembroke school building, where he will be assisted by Mrs. Graves, County Agriculturist Casey and Secretary B. D. Hill. Mrs. Graves will speak on the Boys' and Girls' Club Work, Mr. Casey on Poultry Work with the Adults, and Secretary Hill will tell about the White Wyandottes and why they are being made the standard fowl in Christian county.

Probably other members of the Christian County Poultry Improvement Association will go to Pembroke to speak on the White Wyandottes at this meeting.

Mr. Chapin's lecture is a very interesting and instructive one. He is a good speaker and an effort will be made to have a full house when he speaks at the H. B. M. A. All ladies who are interested in poultry are invited to hear Mr. Chapin on Monday night.

MICE DO MUCH INJURY TO FARM CROPS

Rose Hedge injured by Field Mice. Young Pear Tree Destroyed by Field Mice.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Pine mice occur throughout the eastern portion of the United States, and do much harm to fruit and ornamental trees and shrubs, as well as to garden produce and other farm crops.

Pine mice are seldom seen on account of their molelike habits, for they live in their own underground and owls, which are enemies of these rodents, are continuously persecuted. The mice live upon roots, seeds, succulent vegetation and bark of young trees, and are very destructive to sweet potatoes and other tubers, as well as to trees and shrubs.

The most practical method of controlling this pest is by poisoning. Sweet potatoes cut into small pieces have proved to be the most effective bait. They are prepared as follows:

Sweet potato bait—Cut sweet potatoes into pieces about the size of large grapes. Moisten four quarts of these and drain off excess moisture. Slowly sift over them one-eighth of an ounce of powdered strychnine (alkaloid), using a pepper box or salt shaker for the purpose, and stir constantly to distribute the poison evenly.

One or two pieces of the poisoned sweet potatoes should be dropped into the tunnels through the natural openings, or through openings made with a stick. A systematic use of this poison invariably results in an almost complete extermination of pine mice. These pests are also easily trapped, but owing to the extra time and labor required, this method does not compare favorably with poisoning.

USE OF A MANURE SPREADER

When Used Judiciously Increased Yield in Crops Will Pay for Device Within Short Time.

If you haven't time to haul out the manure from the barns and corrals and spread it in the old-fashioned way with a pitchfork, buy a manure spreader and do it right.

If you will use it judiciously, the increased yield in crops will more than pay the cost within two seasons, and the spreader, well cared for, will last for many years.

You cannot become an efficient farmer and realize the maximum returns from your time and labor without good implements.

GOOD TIME TO PRUNE TREES

Much Depends Upon Object Sought, Age of Trees and Convenience in Performing the Work.

It is a fact that trees pruned in June are more likely to set fruit than if pruned in spring or winter; also wounds made in June heal more quickly than when made in early spring. On the other hand, it is a fact that most farmers and orchardists are too busy in June with other work to attend to pruning; also it is more difficult to prune in June, because the leaves cover the trees and interfere more or less with rapid, easy work. It is also a fact that no one rule will apply to all cases.

If a farmer or fruit grower wants wood growth in a young orchard or on young shade trees, he will get it most quickly by doing his pruning in early spring, whereas, if he wants merely to promote the formation of fruit buds, he will find that June pruning is best; so, looking at the question in a large way, there are two "best times" to prune trees—depending upon the object sought, the age of the trees and convenience in doing the work.

Fruit on the Farms.

The old family orchards are rapidly disappearing, so take more care of them; if we don't, the future commercial orchardists will supply the rural as well as the city population.

Storing Squashes.

Squashes should be stored in a dry place at a temperature of about 50 degrees. Do not lay more than one deep on shelves.

Small Fruits.

Money can be made from small fruits. The area is decreasing year by year, and this means the prices will keep getting higher.

INDIVIDUAL HOG HOUSE

Excellent Type of Structure Used at Government Farm.

Structure Presents Very Attractive Appearance and Has Proved Satisfactory in Service—Details of Construction.

There are numerous forms of individual hog houses constructed to be portable and adapted to accommodate a sow with pigs, or two or three hogs. Almost every portable house that is built possesses certain features peculiar to itself and rendered necessary by the circumstances which it is intended to meet. The type of hog house described here has been successfully used on the government experimental farm at Beltsville, Md.

This house presents a very attractive appearance and has proved satisfactory in general service. It is simple in construction and possesses all the essentials of an ideal hog house. It can be moved from place to place whenever desired. The perpendicular walls furnish plenty of floor space, which can be used to good advantage. The doors, ventilators, and roof are so arranged as to provide for ample fresh air and shade. The wires fastened to the roof and lying on it serve to hold up the back for ventilation and to shade the ground. The back is swung open and the hooks that hold it shut are hooked in these pieces of wire. In the winter the house can be closed to shut out the cold winds and the roof opened to give fresh air and sunlight to the interior.

In moving the house a good way is to take a chain or a strong rope and fasten it to the runners through the holes bored for the purposes, fasten to a clevis, hitch on a team, and take the house wherever desired.

The runners are the foundation of the house and should be of sufficient dimension (3 by 6 inches) to hold the house well off the ground. Wood which is short-lived and decays when placed in contact with the ground can not be recommended. The more durable woods are fir and cypress. Two joists are used to stiffen the floor, so 1-inch material is of sufficient thickness to make a good floor. The frame is built of 2 by 4-inch material.

The house is covered with 3/4 by 2-inch tongued-and-grooved pine boards, which is very tight and sheds water. Ten-inch shiplap could be used satisfactorily and will reduce the cost of building the house. A satisfactory fender is made by fastening 2 by 4-inch pieces flatwise 6 inches from the floor. Fenders are absolutely necessary for the protection of the young pigs.

Paint will aid in prolonging the life of the house as well as improving the appearance. Any good paint which will stand the weather will be satisfactory, but two coats should be given to thoroughly cover the wood. The inside of the house can be given a good coating of whitewash. This will give it a clean and sanitary appearance.

Keep the Saws Sharp.

Some men sharpen saws about as they do their razors. The more they sharpen them the duller they are. Now, there is some man in your neighborhood who can sharpen saws. Go and ask him to give you a few pointers, and then let them point. A sharp saw is a blessed good thing to have on the farm.

Money Wasted.

No use working hard and scrimping to buy a nice thing for the farm or home and then let it spoil out in the wet, or use it as if it had no feelings.

DEMOCRATS WIN IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, April 5.—The Democrats scored heavily in Tuesday's aldermanic elections in the thirty-five wards of the city. A year ago the Democrats carried but seven wards, and William Hale Thompson, republican, was elected mayor by 147,477 majority.

Yesterday the Democrats carried twenty-one wards, the socialists one and the republicans but thirteen.

There are thirty-five holdover aldermen, and the Democrats came within four wards of wresting control of the city council from their rivals.

Of the Republicans elected all but three belong to the anti-Thompson faction in the city hall.
